

Aromafloria has brought the Art of Wellness to the consumer through organic, natural, eco-friendly products that make a difference in how we feel, utilizing the Art of Aromatherapy and the Ritual of the Bath.

A complete line of retail products in beautiful, sustainable packaging supplemented with a professional range to compliment your services and promote retail sales.

It is what we leave behind that counts.

All Aromafloria products are carefully created in our USDA Certified Organic manufacturing facility and are formulated with natural earth minerals, organic essential oils, and fair trade ingredients sourced from third world producers who are given a premium price for community developments and environmental stewardship.

Manufactured with minimal carbon footprints in a 100% WIND POWERED GREEN-E CERTIFIED facility.

Our commitment to high quality, eco-friendly natural organic products never ends.

Our product philosophy "Good for you and Good for the Planet™" guides all formulations to deliver enhanced performance naturally.

Founder Sharon Christie, pharmacist, aromatherapist and herbalist, has married botanical-science stories with the latest advances in "green clean chemistry" to create luxurious hand-made products in harmony with the planet.
